Community addresses the board -

Beverly Santicola - $350,000 matching grant - what money is needed for and by when is it needed? Richard explains that we are using it in the future. We will need a purchase order and communicate with Beverly when it is time to use it. - Beverly requests a copy of our meeting minutes, Raleigh will send.

Ferguson-Pyatt - architect report - walk through and visuals are really showing us how it will look and it looks good! Going to present for tribal council still; design is on track for the next steps. Present the graphics to the public, Danny will move them to council building after parent-teacher conferences

Reports

Tribal Council report - Councilman Jacket -

Board reports -

Tawnie - Gates Foundation presentation - a good day; Sept 24 Ute Language program graduation, 20 graduates; First Nations Conference upcoming

Tina - NAM/NIED conference with Juanita and Alicia - OELA, office of english language acquisition and multiculturalism, AI/NA stats and the impact of ELL designation on Native learners, linguistic strengths and cultural connections, "our language is who we are" and without it our kids could never be what they could be, putting into native languages the new vocabulary for technology and other things that didn't exist pre-colonialism, community classes and working with FLC

Book Project - things are going in a positive direction and the team is together and its mostly Indigenous, final say so goes through Jaunita; one more ready for publishing

Finance report - Quarterly report FY25 Q1 - passed the audit (SJT Group LLC), not in the red, spending down our grants more (all except vacant teacher spots)

Principal report -

1. Staffing - 1st and 4th grade teachers needed
